

With TIGERTIGER's Wedding Photography, you can
Smile for all the right reasons!

Your Wedding day is such a special experience, so we want to be 100% certain that you choose a photographer who will deliver to your expectations and provide you with top quality photos.

You will notice when you meet us that our team are fun, energetic and vibrant. We work hard to make you feel relaxed on your day which not only helps you to enjoy it more, but it helps us to get the best photos possible of you.

A huge advantage when coming with us is that we supply you with all of the Digital Negatives. This enables you to get prints done for yourself and your family after the wedding without having huge extra costs. It also means you can store them all safely away and never lose the memories.

We are more than happy to answer other questions related to your day, and often can recommend other services that we have worked with in the past and were very pleased with.
